

PayPal Merchant Fees

When you sell with us, you can get some of the most competitive rates in the business.

Last Updated: 1, August 2022

You can find details about changes to our fees and when they will apply on our Policy Updates Page. You can also view these changes by clicking 'Legal' at the bottom of any web-page and then selecting 'Policy Updates'.

Domestic: A transaction occurring when both the sender and receiver are registered with or identified by PayPal as residents in the European Economic Area (EEA).

International: A transaction occurring when the sender and receiver are registered with or identified by PayPal as residents of different markets. Certain markets are grouped together when calculating international transaction rates. For a listing of our groupings, please access our Market/Region Grouping Table.

International euro (EUR) or Swedish krona (SEK) transactions where both the sender and the receiver are registered with or identified by PayPal as resident in the European Economic Area (EEA) are treated as domestic transactions for the purpose of applying fees.

Market Code Table: We may refer to two-letter market codes throughout our fee pages. For a complete listing of PayPal market codes, please access our Market Code Table.

Relevant Market/Region

Rates published below apply to PayPal accounts of residents of the following market/region:

Commercial Transaction Rates

When you buy or sell goods or services, receive payments through QR Codes, make any other commercial type of transaction, or receive a payment when you “request money” using PayPal, we call that a “commercial transaction”.

Commercial transaction rates also apply to transactions received via PayPal Plus.

Standard rate for receiving domestic transactions

Transaction Type	Rate

Micropayments

Subject to application and pre-approval by PayPal, you may upgrade an existing account to receive the Dynamic Micropayment rate. Dynamic Micropayment rates can be ideal as an alternative to standard commercial transaction rates for businesses that process lower payments. If you upgrade to the Dynamic Micropayment rate, this rate will apply to all commercial transaction payments received into your PayPal account. Please contact us to apply for the Dynamic Micropayment rate.
